Nothing Between Us

Until the End

Don't you cry to me.
Don't cry to me that you're torn apart.
I'm the one lying in a pool of blood.
Knife lodged deep into my fucking spine.
Now you see just what you're actions have done.
When all the drama is said and done, we are nothing.
There is nothing between us, but oceans of bad blood.(5x)
Because bond is thicker then blood.
And sometimes family is all you have.
My true friends, will stand behind me, until the fucking end.
Because bond is thicker then blood.
And sometimes family is all you have.
My true friends, will stand behind me, until the fucking end.
Don't cry to me that your torn apart.
I'm the one lying in a pool of blood.
Knife lodged deep into my fucking spine.
Now you see just what you're actions have done.
I'll fall to my knees, and prey for your death.(4x)
I'll prey for your death(4x)
