

Say Hallelujah

Tracy Chapman

Say Hallelujah
Throw up your hands
The bucket is kicked
The body is goneClose your eyes
And bow your head
To rest your soul
And to praise the deadSay Hallelujah
Throw up your hands
The bucket is kicked
The body is goneDry your eyes
And stand upright
Put a smile on your face
He wouldn't want us to cryThe sun will rise
The stars will shine
Turning day to dusk
And night to dawn
We'll pass on
But until that timeSay Hallelujah
Hallelujah
Say Hallelujah
HallelujahSay Hallelujah
Throw up your hands
The bucket is kicked
The body is goneHave mercy
It's a wonderful life
Eternal rest for the weary
Mourners party tonightSay Hallelujah
Throw up your hands
The bucket is kicked
The body is goneWave your hands
But don't say goodbye
We're all gonna meet you
On the other side
