

Harmonic Instrumental

Arcwelder

(music arcwelder, words s macdonald)

Now the closets are empty used to be full

Empty lover standing where once there was a soul

Touch down come down

You can lose your footing when you chase after a dream

Emotions forming gateways not as open as they seem[chorus]

All I want is some body to take me in their arms say 'sall right

I have wanted that all a long don't worry I won't hold my breath Why waste time and money what we know is the truth

Funny all of our lives when they blast through the roof

Come down touch down

A body at rest stays at rest all decided long ago

Nothing in the language how well I know[chorus]
