

Broken (ft. Blake Kelly)

Justin Bieber

I guess they want a reaction
I ain't gonna give it to 'em
Get it and try'n' to get at me, yeah
I ain't gonna feed into it Ooh they been persistent
Tryna break me down Ooh I cannot be broken
I cannot be broken
Ooh I cannot be broken
I cannot be broken They can't take what's mine
Someone like me is hard to find Ooh I cannot be broken
Like I knew you were hoping Whooaa (hoping it would change me)
Whooaa (hoping it would make me lose my mind) Way too strong for that
You know you were wrong for that
So keep on kissing at 4:58
As I cruise on the smooth highway
I ain't even tryna get away, I'm good
They tryna break me Ooh I cannot be broken
I cannot be broken
Ooh I cannot be broken
I cannot be broken They can't take what's mine
Someone like me is hard to find Ooh I cannot be broken
Like I knew you were hoping Hoping and praying I really won't make it
All of these things they tried to forsake me
How you gon' play me, how you gon' break me
I've been in this shit since I was a baby
All of my life, been driving 'em crazy,
There go the Blakie, done all them ladies
Drummin' the Benz, kissing Mercedes,
Living the life and acting so crazy
Hidin' from cameras, hidin' the ladies
How do you expect me not to go crazy
Never been lazy, never been shady,
Lost a few friends the moneys still gravy
Whishin' on stars that's why they still hatin'
Money out front, we never be waiting
Save some and invest some, just let my money be patient
It's a cold world that we live in, diamonds all in my pendant
They can't say and tell what's in it, and they pray for me to be finished
Haters gonna start trippin', when you don't pay them no attention
Then the yachts go in my face

I guarantee that I kill it, ah!Ooh I cannot be broken
I cannot be broken (no!)
Ooh I cannot be broken
I cannot be brokenThey can't take what's mine
Someone like me that's hard to findOoh I cannot be broken
Like I knew you were hoping
