Seven Times

Mike Rust

Love love love love love love love
I have to say it 7 times
Love love love love love love love
I have to say it 7 times
Nothings growing here
Nothing grows up at all
Hate hate hate hate hate hate hate
What are you planning for this body
Hate hate hate hate hate hate hate
What are you planning for this body
If you're still cruel and you're spiteful mind
But you'll not catch me this time
'Cause I'm just looking for the sun
It takes time (I swear I'll be patient)
I'm diggin' for it, I'm diggin' for it
I'm diggin' for it, I'm diggin' for it
Love love love love love love love

Love love love love love love love
Do I have to say it 7
Nothings growing here
Nothing grows up at all
Hate hate hate hate hate hate hate
What are you planning for this body
Hate hate hate hate hate hate hate
What are you planning for this body
If you're still cruel and you're spiteful mind
But you'll not catch me this time
'Cause I'm just looking for the sun
It takes time (I swear I'll be patient)
I'm diggin' for it, I'm diggin' for it
I'm diggin' for it, I'm diggin' for it
Love love love love love love love
Love love love love love love love
