

Only for the Stars In Your Eyes

Xandria

On a train to Never land
We are riding hand in hand
We are chasing unicorns
And elvesChinese dragons guide our way
To the dawning of the day
We will give a promise to
OurselvesOnly for tonight
Only for the stars in your eyesWe are crazy but who cares?
To our heaven there are stairs
If we want it to be like that
And reality is just
An illusion that we must
Soon return to, yes, but not yetOnly for tonight
Only for the stars in your eyesHey, give me what I need
Hey, you are what I want
Only for tonight
For your eyes onlyOnly for tonight
Only for the stars in your eyes
