

How Does It Feel (Married Your Girl)

Kelly Price

Hey, Das
This is a story of me
And the man I knew I was meant to be with forever
But he took me for granted
And I had to move on
So learn your lesson early
Listen to me How does it feel, now that you know
You could've had me but you let me go
You're on the outside of your own world
'Cuz someone else married Destiny said we were to be
But you tested fate so you could run free
And now you watch in disbelief
While someone else is living your life with me How does it feel, now that you know
You could've had me but you let me go
You're on the outside of your own world
'Cuz someone else married, married your girl All along you wasted time
Scared to settle down and make up your mind
But was it worth it all to do your do
To see him walking everyday in your shoes? How does it feel, now that you know
You could've had me, but you let me go
You're on the outside of your own world
'Cuz someone else married Oh, he's living your life
Your wife, your kids, your house, your cars
Your white picket fence around your green aced lawn
Was written long before you were born
You gave it away, oh, what a mistake! How does it feel, now that you know
You could've had me, but you let me go
You're on the outside of your own world
'Cuz someone else married How does it feel, now that you know
You could've had me, but you let me go
You're on the outside of your own world
'Cuz someone else married How does it feel, now that you know
You could've had me, but you let me go
You're on the outside of your own world
'Cuz someone else married How does it feel, now that you know
You could've had me, but you let me go
You're on the outside of your own world
'Cuz someone else married
