Glasser

If the walls were too thin,
You would break in.
If the walls were too thin
You would break right in.

Morning, morning

Out in the thunder
Opened my eyes wide
There is sound in my mind
Keeps me up all night.

Ooh when the window
Lets in hot whips of light
Before I feel it's time
To control my mind.

Morning, morning
Morning, morning

Morning, morning
Morning, morning.....(etc)
