The Last Time

Jessica Lowndes

I'm out of my head, I'm out of my heart
I've thought it was over then, are we back at the start?
go away in the wind, turn back and you're gone
I should just let you go, but I keep holding onwas the last time, the last time?
or something new?
I try to pretend, but it's hard getting over you
was the last time, the last time?
or something new?
not fooling myself, cause it's always been youdon't know how to feel, don't want you to know I'm right back here again, thought I've let you go keep asking myself, is this right or so wrong?
we've been through this all before is our time really gone?was the last time, the last time?
or something new?
I try to pretend, but it's hard getting over you
was the last time, the last time?
or something new?
not fooling myself, cause it's always been youI learn how to live, without you in my life now I can't see, I can't dream want you here with me.
ohhhlet me wake up, to find you by my side could it be...
I'm out of head, I'm out of my heart
I've thought we were overwas the last time, the last time?
or something new?
I try to pretend, but I never got over you
was the last time, the last time?
what can I do?
am I just a fool?was the last time, the last time?
or something new?
I don't wanna pretend, I don't want this to end
i guess i never got over you
