Get Low

James Vincent McMorrow

Heard you're getting married (Get low)
Everybody say it (Get low)
Greatest man alive (Get low)
I've been told (I could never show, I could never show)
Bought yourselves a diamond (Get low)
Finally getting paid (Get low)
Buying people's silence (Get low)
They're afraid (I could never show, I could never show)Constant threat of violence, it works
It can get you so far
End up feeling worse, it's cold
Then you're left with no oneI love the way your heart had no rules
Loving what your heart becomes
Even when you smile, you're still cruel
Loving what your heart becomes
Remember when my hands, they turned blue
Loving what your heart becomes
I love the way you hang with no fools
Loving what your heart becomesWhat your heart becomes
What your heart becomesHow'd we get invited? (Get low)
Out here in L.A. (Get low)
Trying to be the man you need (Get low)
Every day (I could never show, I could never show)
Thought I'd write a novel (Get low)
Didn't like the weight (Get low)
It's hard to stay inspired (Get low)
And stay awake (I could never show, I could never show)And struggling in darkness, it works
It can get you so far
But digging in the dirt, it gets old
Then you're left with no oneI love the way your heart had no rules
Loving what your heart becomes
Even when you smile, you're still cruel
Loving what your heart becomes
Remember when my hands, they turned blue
Loving what your heart becomes
I love the way you hang with no fools
Loving what your heart becomesWhat your heart becomes
What your heart becomesGather in a circle
Dropping to our knees
Praying for forgiveness from you

Begging please
Clapping like we mean it
And nothing's ever changing
Everything about it always stays the sameI love the way your heart had no rules
Loving what your heart becomes
Even when you smile, you're still cruel
Loving what your heart becomes
Remember when my hands, they turned blue
Loving what your heart becomes
I love the way you hang with no fools
Loving what your heart becomesWhat your heart becomes
What your heart becomes
