

Roar

Vanessa Littrell

Here in the midst of the story you told
Give me your boys I must send them to war
Confusion and chaos some lives will be lost
But tell me as you sit there who will pay the cost?

Roll, I can't roll over anymore
Roar, I won't be silent anymore

Here in the mist that has clouded our eyes
We sit on the couch and we swallow the lies
Refuse to be told there's no other recourse
You say you'll liberate us, but all you use is force

Roll, I can't roll over anymore
Roar, I won't be silent anymore

Here in the midst of the fighting it is clear
If no one makes a sound then no one disappears
Excuses are made to deny what we've done
As we tally up the numbers what have we won?

Roll, I can't roll over anymore
Roar, I won't be silent anymore
Roll, I can't roll over anymore
Roar, I won't be silent anymore

Here in the midst of the story you told
Give me your boys I must send them to war
