One Gun

54-40

The sins of deliverance
The eyes of the patriot, fixed through the scope
The unknowing tyrant walks to the rope
It's when murder is justice that martyrs are made
A one-gun salute for the new independence day
They'll hallow your name
They'll hallow your name, for your sacrifice
The sins of deliverance
So let the wicked perish
In the presence of God, for your sacrifice
The sins of the Father atoned by the Son
Confessions of commitment broken
A nail driven for every one
It's when murder is justice that martyrs are made

A one-gun salute for the new independence day
They'll hallow your name
They'll hallow your name, for your sacrifice
You are the cause, I am the effect
Created in hatred, a noose for your neck
The eyes of the patriot, fixed through the scope
The unknowing tyrant walks to the rope
They'll hallow your name, for your sacrifice
They'll hallow your name
Sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice
They'll hallow your name
