another broken heart

Sha-Na

Well, these days it's kinda hard to love someone
Then too, funny, honey, when it just begun
To trust somebody and you give it all awayThere goes another broken heart
Here comes another rainy day, yeah, rainy dayOh, I've seen it way too many times before
A love gone bad can make you wanna hit the floor
Cryin' and beggin' but no matter what you sayThere goes another broken heart
Here comes another rainy day, yeahGive it some time, it's alright
Let it go away
'Cos in due time, you'll find
There's another day, I said, another day, yeah, yeahI'm not tryna tell you people what to do
I'm singin' you a story about the things that I been through
I know the feelin' when love walks awayThere goes another broken heart
Here comes another rainy dayGive it some time, it's alright
Let it go away
'Cos in due time, you'll find
There's another day, I said, another dayA broken heart's been mend, rainy days, they end
So just keep trying don't give up
Here comes a sunny day
A brighter and better way
Live and loveOh, here comes a sunny day
A brighter and better way
To live and love, live and love
Live and love, live and love, love, loveOh, yeah, yeah
There goes another broken heart
Here comes another rainy day
