

Life Slash Dreams

Dan Black

Into my car comes a light of a the setting song
That lonely star and the sound of the traffic home
How often am I here where I just disappear
Maybe I wash away, am I awake or am I asleep?
Life is life, dreams are dreams
And I'm floating somewhere in between
Life is life, dreams are dreams
And I'm floating somewhere in between
Somewhere in between, somewhere in between
She melts alone to some stupid hum drum song
And it feels so good, how do things go wrong?
Daffodils and guns pointing at your sons?
All you do is talk away, am I awake or am I asleep?
Life is life, dreams are dreams

And I'm floating somewhere in between
Life is life, dreams are dreams
And I'm floating somewhere in between
Somewhere in between, somewhere in between
Somewhere in between
In bars and cafes and railway stations
All talking [Incomprehensible]
I guess I have no choice
I need to find your voice or I'll just dissolve
Life is life, dreams are dreams
And I'm floating somewhere in between
Life is life, dreams are dreams
And I'm floating somewhere in between
Somewhere in between, somewhere in between
