Empty

Raheem DeVaughn

Close your eyes and imagine life with me
Now imagine life without me, could you do it?
I couldn't imagine life without youWithout you I'd be empty
To lie in the bed alone-empty
Shotgun in the ride-empty
My heart, my heart-emptyOoh, you know you're lovesick
When ya answer the phone
And you hope to hear her voice
Ooh, you know you're lovesick
When ya shut it down and make
That girl your only choiceOoh, lovesick when
When you wake up in the morning
(Just to fix her breakfast)
And I'll tell you how you know, your heart'll tell you so
When you found something good, you just can't let it goOne might spend a whole lifetime
Tryin' to find the love that I have here with you
My heart won't run out of space for you
Without you I'd be lovesick and empty
(I'd be empty without ya)Love, so empty
(Ooh, so empty without ya)
Lovesick and empty
(I'd be empty without ya)
So empty
(So empty)Ooh, you know you found the one
When you get on bended knee
And words come out like marry me
Ooh, yes, you know you found the one
When the seconds feel like heaven
In the blink of an eternityOoh, you know you found the one
When there's no thought of time
And she's always on your mind
Ooh, you know you found the one
When you wanna be a better man
And man up like you canOne might spend a whole lifetime
Tryin' to find the love that I have here with you
My heart and my speaks for you
Without you I'd be lovesick and empty
(I'd be empty without ya)Love, so empty
(Ooh, so empty without ya)

Lovesick and empty
(I'd be empty without ya)
So empty
(So empty)Only gonna be alone
Searching the world for whatcha got at home
That would be a tragedy
If you miss out on what's meant to beOnly gonna be alone
Searching the world for whatcha got at home
That would be a tragedy
If you miss out on what's meant to beOne might spend a whole lifetime
Tryin' to find the love that I have here with you
My heart and my speaks for you
Without you I'd be lovesick and empty
(I'd be empty without ya)Love, so empty
(Ooh, so empty without ya)
Lovesick and empty
(I'd be empty without ya)
So empty
(So empty)Right after a light rain, have you ever seen
A rainbow that touched the sky?
Where it meets next to a pot of gold
That's what your beauty, your beauty reminds me ofLike a full moon it hangs next to the heavenly clouds
From which you came, you're my shining star
I'd be lovesick
