Didn't Know

Scarlet's Web

I was broken, troubled, tortured inside
I was woken, sweating, sleep deprived
In a moment, the world went from round to flat
In a moment, what was given was melting and I

Didn't know what I know now
Didn't fight when I knew how

Turn the minutes into hours, and the hours turn my years
The reflection, unforgiving, turn the silence into tears
Should I pray for all of the silence, save it for when I can't hear

Didn't know what I know now
Didn't fight when I knew how
Didn't know what I know now
Didn't fight when I knew how

I was naked, open yet closed at the same time
Taking over my shadows that wouldn't lift my shine

Didn't know what I know now
Didn't fight when I knew how
Didn't know what I know now
Didn't fight when I knew how

Didn't know what I know what I know what I know now
Didn't know what I know now
La-lai la-lai la-lai la-la
