

Born Again

Jenny Phillips

I had forgotten how sweet
Total surrender can be
I'm turning over my weakness
Letting You pick up the pieces
I stand in awe and wonder
As You wash away every stain
And I am forever changed

Born again
Stepping out of the night
Feeling the marvelous light
On my face
Lifted up by Your grace
Lord how could I ever repay You
For this newness deep within
I am born again

I thought my chances were gone
But Your love has proven me wrong
You lead me out of the dark
You bring new hope to me heart
I stand in awe and wonder
Putting my life in Your hands
Giving You all that I am

Born again
Stepping out of the night
Feeling the marvelous light
On my face
Lifted up by Your grace
Lord how could I ever repay You
For this newness deep within
I am born again

I am born again
