Sink Or Swim

Lewis Watson

Sink or swim, hold your breath and just dive right in.
Ride the wave, just ride the wave far from where we came.
Don?t be scared, who cares if we lose again?
Let it out; don?t let doubt ever have its day.
Down and out, don?t throw the towel we can win this race.
Don?t be scared, who cares if we lose again?
I?ll be there; I?ll be there with you till the end.
I know I?ll be holding onto you for dear life,
holding onto you for dear life I will.
You know, I?ll be holding onto you for dear life,
holding onto you for dear life I will.
Sing to me; make me feel like the only one.

Bring to me, and I?ll bring to you everything you want.
Don?t be scared, no who cares if we lose again.
I?ll be there no, I?ll be there with you till the end,
and I know I?ll be holding onto you for dear life,
holding onto you for dear life I will,
and I know I?ll be holding onto you for dear life,
holding onto you for dear life I will
I know you?ll be holding onto me for dear life,
holding onto me for dear life I know ,
you?ll be holding onto me for dear life,
holding onto me for dear life I know
Sink or swim, hold your breath and just dive right in.
