Want for Nothing

Jennifer Knapp

Lay down, have your dream
I'll work quietly
Put all my labor to love
And you wake up, you wake up
Feeling enoughYou will want for nothing
Know the truth
I will be here waiting for you
Want for nothing
You will want for nothingHold on, it may seem
A few small words can come between
And why must we label good or bad?
Let's wake up, let's wake up
Wrapped in the joy and the wonder thatWe have a want for nothing
Know the truth
I will be here waiting for you
Want for nothing
You will want for nothingGravity can often
Won't pull me down
You're no ball and chain
You're the comfort
I love the steady pull
I love the steady pullThe wings form me
I've no need for these things
Without you where have I to fly
Let's lay down
Let's lay down, I have everything
Well, you're besideI'll want for nothing
Know the truth
I will be here waiting for you
Want for nothing
You will want for nothingYou will want for nothing
Know the truth
I will be here waiting for you
Want for nothing
You will want for nothingYou will want for nothing
You will want for nothing
