Art of Dying

I didnt say I love you when I had the chance
Now I lie here bleeding
Im in an awful mess
I know its not the right time to become a religious man
But Ive got that nasty feeling that its my only chanceThere is no pain
no sign of life
I took in vain my only life
I cant explain where the time went Now Im breathing my final breathI fell awake while sleeping forgot to remember how I gave my best at taking had everything but more
The pavements getting cold now
Youre the best thing in my life
I really should have told you, but I didnt have the timeThere is no pain
no sign of life
I took in vain my only life
I cant explain where the time went
Now Im breathing my final breathI didnt say I love you when I had the chance
Now I lie here bleeding
Im in an awful mess
I know its not the right time to become a religious man
But Ive got that nasty feeling that its my only chanceThere is no pain
no sign of life
I took in vain my only life
I cant explain where the time went
Now Im breathing my final breathThere goes my last breath
