Ocean City Girl

Ivy

moving slowly into the setting sun keeping secrets away from everyone staring out into another world tide is rising , but time is standing still ocean city girl is smiling... ocean city girl is flying... the night is falling, the street lights start to glow no one is there when the cracks begin to show they cant hurt her like shes been hurt before noone here can get near her anymore ocean city girl is fading... ocean city girl is saying ...goodbye...
ocean city girl is fading...
ocean city girl is saying.. goodbye
