Taking Me On

Halfway to Hazard

You're the angel in my pocket
You're that whisper in my head
You're the perfume on my dirty shirt
The favorite words I've ever saidYou're the edge I just stepped off of You're the sunlight through my window pane
You're the road I wanna break down on
In the pouring rain'Cause I know I'm not easy to hold
But you've reached me, baby
You saved me from me before I was too far gone
Girl, I love you for taking me onI spent my life just spinning my wheels
But I wasn't getting nowhere fast
You took my foot off the gas
You brought me miles from where you found me
And now I ain't going back'Cause I know I'm not easy to hold
But you've reached me, baby
You saved me from me before I was too far gone
Girl, I love you for taking me onI was lost, I was wrong, I was searching
I was reckless and helpless and hurting
(Taking me on)
You were strong enough to carry me all the way'Cause I know I'm not easy to hold
But you've reached me, baby
You saved me from me before I was too far gone
(Too far gone)
Girl, I love you for taking me onI was lost, I was wrong, I was searching
I was reckless and helpless and hurting
(Taking me on)
I was lost, I was wrong, I was searching
I was reckless and helpless and hurtingI was lost, I was wrong, I was searching
I was reckless and helpless and hurting
(Taking me on)
I was lost, I was wrong, I was searching
I was reckless and helpless and hurtingI was lost, I was wrong, I was searching
I was reckless and helpless and hurting
I was lost, I was wrong, I was searching
I was reckless and helpless and hurtingI was lost, I was wrong, I was searching
I was reckless and helpless and hurting
I was lost, I was wrong, I was searching
I was reckless and helpless and hurting
