

Only Me

The Dunwells

every time I'm crying every time I'm crying i think of you I'd rather be escaping
I'd rather escaping from the truth true is only me I'm blaming it's me who changed the lanes and crashed down hard so hard But things are getting easier now won't break up, my love and every time I'm running every time I'm running to you I'd rather be escaping
I'd rather be escaping from the truth is only me is me who changed the lanes and crashed is only me I'm drinking only me that can't relax things are getting easier now I won't break up my love the things are getting easier now I won't break out my love I would come runnin I'll come runnin
and I'll come runnin to you but things are getting easier now
