She'll Be Saying

T.S.O.L.

Oh she'll be saying
I hear her sayingStayed at home with you last night, can't seem to get yu off my mindBut now she sees a stranger, tell me I'm not a stranger!Tossed and shout, just can't sleep, can't seem to get her off of my mindAnd she'll be saying, I hear her saying!
Who knows why I stay in here with you now, who knows why?I can't forget her,
She's just not with meStayed at home with her last night, but all we ever seem to do is fightAnd she'll be saying, I hear her saying!
Who knows why I stay here with you now, who knows why?
Thought I'd never, never, never gonna stop!When he holds her, is it me she's thinking of?Called her late just to stop by, but her parents said she wasn't home tonightWas she with him?
God I hate him!She turned me out and laughed besides, it used to be me she couldn't get off, her mind
