

Blew Away

Smashing Pumpkins

Blew, blew away
But I don't wanna fade
Blew, blew, oh And if you love her
You know it will come true
And if you need her
You know that she'll be there Stay awake, I lie here
With her and I fall
And when I wake inside you
I know you know, I'm yours Blew, blew away
But I don't wanna fade
Blew, blew, oh And if you're sad, too
Until the angel sings
And touches you
Don't confuse my only life I said blew, and please don't ever leave
And I will grieve
And member thee
Hope to meet you there And I wanna let her know
And I wanna let her go
And I wanna let her know
That I love her so I'm blew, blew, blew away
But I don't wanna
Blew, I love you
Blew
