

Dancing Choose (Prefuse 73 Remix)

TV on the Radio

He's a WHAT? he's a WHAT?

He's a newspaper man
And he gets his best ideas
From a newspaper stand;
From his boots to his pants
To his comments and his rants

He knows that any little article will do! Though he expresses some confusion

Bout his part in the plan,
And he can't understand
That he's not in command;
The decisions underwritten
By the cash in his hand
Bought a sweater for

His weimariner tooNow I'm no mad man,

But that's insanity
Feast before famine,
And more before family
Goes and shows up with
More bowls and more
Cups and the riot for the
Last hot meal erupts
Corrupts his hard drive
Through the leanest months
Shells out the hard cash
For the sickest stunts;
On aftershave, on gasoline
He flips the page and turns

The sceneIn my mind I'm drowning butterflies

Broken dreams and alibis;
That's fine.

I've seen my palette blown

To monochrome-
Hollow heart

Clicks hollowtone,

It's time.Eye on authority,

Thumb prints a forgery

Boy, ain't it crazy what the

Lights can do

For counterfeit community;

Every opportunity
Wasted as the space
Between the flash tattooAnd the half-hearted hologram,
 Posed for the party
 Now he gloss full bleed
 On a deaf dumb tree
 Cod liver dollar signs,
 Credit card autograph
 Down for the record
But not for freedomAngry young mannequin
 American, apparently
 Still to the rhythm
 Better get to the back of me
 Can't stand the vision,
 Better tongue the anatomy
 Gold plated overhead,
 Blank transparency
 In the days of old,
 You were a nut
 Now you need three bumps
 Before you cut
 Not that I should care about,
 Nothing I ain't scared of, but I guess you had
 To
 Be

There.In my mind I'm breeding butterflies,
 Broken dreams, and alibis
 That's fine.
 I've seen my palette
 Blown to monochrome
 Hollow heart
In time.I see you figured in your action pose
 Foam-injected axl rose,
 Life size
 Should something shake you
 And you drop the news,
 Lord, just keep your dancing shoes
 Off mine
