

Meet Me In Paris

DJ Antoine & Mad Mark

Meet Me in Paris (Radio Edit) -Dj Antoine

Meet me in Paris, under the stars

And I'll be there, wherever you are

Love in the air is filling my heart

So meet me in Paris, under the starsUnder the stars, whoa, yeah

I wanna breathe you in like air, whoa

There's a place I want us to meet

And I am already there

And I can't wait to see your beautiful smile, oh yeah

You're a vision of beauty and loveSoon as you close your eyes

Meet me in Paris, under the stars

And I'll be there, wherever you are

Love in the air is filling my heart

So meet me in Paris, under the stars

Under the stars, whoa, yeah

I never dreamed it would be like this, whoa no

You're the reason I've waited so long

A chance that I'd never miss

And just like a bell to be a little child, oh yeah

I could get that I'm open enough

When you close your eyes

Meet me in Paris, under the stars

And I'll be there, wherever you are

Love in the air is filling my heart

So meet me in Paris, under the stars

Under the stars, whoa, yeah.

Meet me in Paris, under the stars

And I'll be there, wherever you are

Love in the air is filling my heart

So meet me in Paris, under the stars

Under the stars, whoa, yeah.
