

Love Drunk

Sworn In

Been here before again and again
Seen it before I know how this ends
 My heart than yours
 It drips than it pours
Till it seeps into the wooden floors
 But I adore the way it feels
 To switch when I don't feel real
 And I'll watch you suffer too
So don't feel bad for what you do
I've watched you stab away at my heart
 And baby it's my favorite part
Make me feel miserable like you always do
 Make me fall in love with you
Oh babe I'm just a little love drunk
 But just enough to fill the space
 Now it's your turn feel
 What it's like to not be real
Don't worry babe just part of the deal
 I don't need it anymore
 Fuck, yes I do
I need every little part of you
 No wait, burn in hell
 I have a secret to tell
Oh babe I'm just a little love drunk
 But just enough to fill the space
 Oh babe my heart feels so numb
 So top me off just in case
 My secrets this
Listen up it's not something to miss
I've been so FUCKED from the devil's pretty little kiss
 Now it's your turn feel
 What it's like to not be real
Don't worry babe just part of the deal...
 Rewind!, rewind!
 Play it over again
Sing me a song about being dead!
 Rewind!, rewind!
 It's your turn this time
Sing me a song about blood red wine

Oh babe I'm just a little love drunk
But just enough to fill the space
Oh babe my heart feels so numb
So top me off just in case
Oh babe I'm just a little love drunk...
