

Coffee Break (Alt. Version)

Life of Agony

The most comfortable place isn't comfortable anymore
I feel so out of place, no one knows me for sure
I have this guilty consciousness and not to be me
I feel like a certain somebody but I know I can be me
Too many people try to put me down
For me, I was insulted the other night It's not me I try to sing my songs but I have trouble with that too
The hardest thing to imagine is what comes next
Don't have strength, don't have courage
When you're lacking confidence, I won't let this feeling end
'Cause it might not come again and you know it's not you I try to sing my songs but I have trouble with that too
The most comfortable place isn't comfortable
Did you ever feel out of place? 'Cause you're not comfortable
I won't let this feeling end, 'cause it might not come again
