Bullshit King

Juliette And The Licks

He's a bullshit king and he dwells in his cave
He'll tell you pretty things just to make you behave
He knows the tricks of his trade
He's got all his toys on paradeYou better watch what you do
You better watch what you say
He'll be coming for you and take you so far away
You better watch what you do
You better watch what you say
He'll be coming for you and take you so far awayHe's convered in dandelions just to show you he's sensitive
Rattling the snake of the devine and everything you thought to believe in Spinning yarn and lace up and down the cracks of your faceYou better watch what you do
You better watch what you say
He'll be coming for you and take you so far away
You better watch what you do
You better watch what you say
He'll be coming for you and take you so far awayWatch what you say, watch what you say, watch what you say
That's right give me something to believe inThis is the beginning, this is the beginning for you and me
Oh he's a bullshit king don't you know what I mean
He's a bullshit king you know what I meanYou better watch what you do
You better watch what you say
He'll be coming for you and take you so far away
You better watch what you do
You better watch what you say
He'll be coming for you and take you so far away
You better watch what you do
Watch what you say
He'll be coming for you and take you so far away
Watch what you do
Watch what you say
He'll be coming for you and take you so far awayWatch what you say, watch what you say
He's a bullshit king
Baby, I just wanna tell you I love you, you mean everything to me
