Cat Rider

Little Dragon

Two months ago now
Since she came around this house
Her answering machine's full
He thinks listening could give her doubts
But when this girl's made up her mind
She's made up her mind, made up her mind
Looking out to the horizon
No turnin' back
No wastin' timeSmooth cat rider
Stop bragging cause she broke your facade
Don't we all want to be stars in love
Stop playin' with the one that you love
Smooth cat rider
Stop ringin' cause it's gone to your head
So smooth
But she was smart instead
Stop playin' with the one that you loveI felt a new hole
Big old portraits of himself on the wall
Diamonds sculpt your face
This peacock is flying all over the place
The tiger's extra claws
No she's not impressed
Your laughs at stupid jokes
The only thing she missed
Now you can't stop looking back
Leaving messagesSmooth cat rider
Stop bragging cause she broke your facade
Don't we all want to be stars in love
Stop playin' with the one that you love
Smooth cat rider
Stop playin' cause it's gone to your head
So smooth
But she was smart instead
Stop playin' with the one that you loveEmpty bottles, where to go next
Knowing what you truly missed
It's too late, can't rewind it
Can't get out your king-size bed
Now you're left with names to forget
Tryin' to heal from the pain

If only you could rewind it
Would not have acted the same
Smooth cat rider
She broke your facade
Smooth cat rider
Mmhmm
