Down In The Canyon

Heartless Bastards

Went out walking on the cloudless night
Down the canyon the moon is so bright
I'm in a fire go in threw my bones
I'm out here and on my own
And the hour is getting late
And the hour is getting late
As I lay underneath this sky
Take all my pain away with the night
Align my way, align my heart
Help me find my way through these parts
And the hour is getting late

And the hour is getting late
All of this time we never saw the sun
And now I'm back here again
All of this time we never saw the sun
And now I'm back here again
And left all I will be all tomorrow
And left all I will be all tomorrow
And all I have one less ghost in my heart[?]
And things are turning round again
And all I have one less ghost in my heart[?]
And it feels like I would never allowed you to let go
And now I, I will be all tomorrow
And now I, I will be all tomorrow
