Tinie Tempah

Our love suicide

Our love suicide

Our love suicide...

[Tinie Tempah]Ah, love suicide is killing me,

You're getting into my head like a guillotine,

You've got me grasping for air in your vicinity

And now you're saying some things

That you don't really mean, that's really mean,

How the hell am I caught up between?

Devil's advocate, trying not to intervene,

Putting up a fight like it ain't a thing to me!

I swear it's gotta be the worst position to be in, be in,

I guess you felt you've been ignored,

And your perfect picture turned into a jigsaw,

Cause when you're round me you get a little withdrawn

And we just can't seem to find time to sit and talk,

I know she is in shock!

Ah, what happens when the hourglass of love runs out?

Under one roof and one house,

And everything becomes so cold,

Baby, that's the only thing I wanna know!

[Chorus]Tell me the reason why

You commit a love suicide

Think you want our love to die

You did it on purpose

I'm all out of tears

Time to get outta here

You made it very clear

You did it on purpose

Our love suicide

Our love suicide

Our love suicide

[Tinie Tempah]I feel like I'm about to break down,

Why you're acting like kid up in the playground?

If you got something on your mind, why don't you let it out?

So the end of us is coming any day now, any day!

I thought we'd never separate,

I could be destroyed but not defeated on the

You know is probably for the best, anyway,

Cause my suspicious mind was...in your jealous face, let's go our separate ways

Ah, what happens when the hourglass of love runs out?

Under one roof and one house,
And everything becomes so cold,

Baby, that's the only thing I wanna know!

[Chorus] Tell me the reason why

You committed a love suicide

Think you want our love to die

You did it on purpose

I'm all out of tears

Time to get outta here

You made it very clear

You did it on purpose, purpose

Our love suicide

Our love suicide

Our love suicide

Why would you hurt us?

Our love suicide

Our love suicide

Our love suicide

[Ester Dean - Bridge] Does it make you happy to see me down?

Does it make your day to see me drown?

I guess I'm your entertainment

You don't know what you wasted

But soon you will see!

What happens when the hourglass of love runs out?

Within four walls of one house,

And everything becomes so cold,

Baby, that's the only thing I wanna know!

[Chorus - Outro] Tell me the reason why (Why, why)

You committed a love suicide (Uhh)

I think you want our love to die

You did it on purpose! (No!)

I'm all out of tears (I'm all out of tears)

Time to get outta here

You made it very clear (Uhh)

You did it on purpose, purpose! (Suicide, love suicide)

You did it on purpose, purpose! (Suicide, love suicide)

You made me feel worthless, worthless (Suicide, love suicide)

Why would you hurt us, hurt us!

You did it on purpose, purpose! (You did it on purpose, suicide, love suicide)

You did it on purpose, purpose! (Suicide, love suicide)

You made me feel worthless, worthless (You made me feel worthless, suicide, love suicide)

Why would you hurt us, hurt us!

What happens when the hourglass of love runs out?
Under one roof and one house,
And everything becomes so cold!
