Ohmega Watts

Verse 1:I hear the same old rhyme, the same old style

 The same old runner has ran the mile

See, I don't know exactly what you know

 But what I know is that stuff gotta go

 Usually when I pick up the mic

Something ill jumps out my mouth for that night

 I like to talk about fact not fiction

 I got some fantasy rhymes but just listen

 Everything I write is premeditated

 Suckas wanna fake it, I just hate it

 Bitin routines or sayin somethin kinda weak

My words are comprehended every time I speak

 Or have spoken, no I'm not jokin

 Please don't sleep, I hope you are awoken

Stop! try this again, you had enough? say when

 I am the man with the six-pack of heineken

 I get tipsy

 But never in your life try to dis me

Cos I don't battle with rhymes, I battle with guns

Knowledge reigns supreme over nearly every one

 If you take the first letter of what I just sung

 You spell my name "krs-one"

It's elementaryElementaryVerse 2:Dj scott larock and i: krs-one

 Our mother's first son and no, we'll never run

 From complex situations like you t-o-y-s's

Always talkin junk, yet in jail, you're rockin dresses

 I have arrived for the purpose of joy

 Unlike any ordinary bronx b-boy

I will volunteer my services and launch an attack

 On you fake educators with your yakety-yak

This is a fact, the teacher is here now in the flesh

 Consistently hounded by you mc pests

 If you really want to learn from me

 Don't waste time in burnin me

Cos ignorance and inexperience does not concern me

 I will emphasize so you will realize and come alive

Never close your eyes, never sleep or you might take a dive

 Many people hate me, many people love me

 Some are far below me

And you know there's some above me
But this, my hypothesis, to conclude the story
All you fake mc's on a mission, you bore me
I'm the blastmaster krs on the mic
Watchin all these females rock their pants too tight
Cos there's no other creative composition on display
That give a full analysis and rock this way
You will pay, eventually you all will decay
While the dj scott larock will continue to play
Cuttin records, drivin cars, and you'll know who we are
Make a mix just for kicks
And you'll be on our tip
And, oh yes, there's a highlight to the show, of course
You hear dj scott larock (go off! go off!)(scott la rock) (go off! go off!) x8Verse 3:Boogie down productions, no reduction to it's title
If you have a headache, toys, go and take a midol
We have arrived for the purpose of enjoyment
You have arrived to make up for unemployment
You're on it only cos I learned just how to flaunt it
I breathed a rhyme upon you like a sickness and you caught it
Quick, get off the tip, trick, you must be sick
Like a doctor here's my bill, I wrote it out with a bic
Signed my name upon the bottle cos you know I just rocked em
But gettin into battles really isn't my thing
You're probably thinking these are the rhymes for the century
But please don't mention me
It's only elementaryElementary
All it really is to me and scott la rock...is elementaryElementary
