Love's a Funny Thing

Xscape

Shoop be doop
Shoop be doop doop dah
Shoop be doop
Love's a funny thingWas only last night I felt you slip away
I tried so hard to hide the pain inside of me, babe
I held you close but you weren't with me
I felt your mind a thousand miles awayI was a fool to let you break me down
You think by now that I would know just what to expect from you, oh
Everytime I fall, I make myself believe that you are changing
And some day the sun will shine throughLove is a funny thing
Your love is a funny thing
Love is a funny thing
OohWhen I first met you your heart was empty
You were innocent and so full of joy
But now you've changed and I don't know you
You played me baby like a toyYou see, I was surprised to see you with that girl
When you said you'd never ever ever ever see her again, no
I don't want to control you, so baby if she's gonna hold you
Then why don't you just stay, stay where you've beenLove is a funny thing
Your love is a funny thing
Love is a funny thing
OohEverybody needs someone to hold them through the night
And everybody needs someone to tell them it's alright
I gave you my heart and you only turned away
So tell me baby, what's going to make you stayLove is a funny thing
Your love is a funny thing
Love is a funny thing
OohShoop be doop
Shoop be doop doop dah
Shoop be doop
Love's a funny thing
