

New World Hors D'oeuvres

People Corrupting People

Open wide now feast your eyes!
Only the wealthy dwell inside!
(These are the new world hors d'oeuvres)
Take all you need then take some more!
All is fair in love and gore!
(These are the new world hors d'oeuvres)

Send me all your liars and thieves and all those consumed by greed
Send me all your weak and your poor and weâ€™ll start the soup de jour
(mmm, that sounds good Iâ€™ll have that!)

You look so delicious
Consumer whore! Consumer whore!
Letâ€™s get down to business
Gimmie more! Gimmie more!
Yeah give me some fucking more!
(Where was I...)

The meat we use is quite obscene!
But we promise you, theyâ€™re very clean!
(These are the new world hors d'oeuvres)
They sold their souls, we had the cash
So please do try the beggars and mash
(These are the new world hors d'oeuvres)

Send me all your gangsters and thugs and all those consuming drugs
Send me all your wards of the state and serve them up on a plate
(Man that sure sounds great!)

You look so delicious
Consumer whore! Consumer whore!
Letâ€™s get down to business
Gimmie more! Gimmie more!
Yeah, gimmie more, consumer whore!

And we know the reasons why
That we die a bit inside
Itâ€™s always buy buy buy (Bye! Bye!)
And we know not what we do
They just tell us to consume

To distract us from the gloom
Live life entranced by things you need
Stuff ourselves full with our all greed
And like sick goldfish, overfeed
Then float, our bellies to the sky,
Desperate for just and answer why
Weâ€™re built to self destruct and die
