

Fade to Black

Alexz Johnson

Three days eight hours fourteen minutes gone
You bend, I'll break like in every song
Maybe I'm too scared to call
Maybe I'm too tough to fall Every thing you are
Every thing reminds me of
Every thing you are
Fades to black Every time I see your face
Yeah
Screamin' the secrets we share
Ohh
We fade to black I call out for your warm embrace
Feel your tears fall upon my face
What makes me so bullet proof?
What makes me act so moved? Every thing you are
Every thing reminds me of
Every thing you are
Fades to black Every time I see your face
Yeah
Screamin' the secrets we share
Ohh Feels like I'm runnin', runnin' as fast as I can Feels like I'm tryin', tryin' to understand
Why I keep crashin'
As hard as I can into you Everything you are
Everything reminds me of
Everything you are
Everything reminds me of
Fades to black, yeah Every time I see your face
Yeah
Screamin' the secrets we share
Ohh Everything you are
Everything reminds me of
Everything you are
Fades to black Every time I see your face
Yeah
Screamin' the secrets we share
Ohh
We fade to black
