Almost a Memory Now

BlackHawk

She gets her things together puts them by the door
She says there's no love here anymore
I'll never be the same if she walks outShe's almost a memory now
Wish I could turn her heart around
I feel so alone, she's not even gone
She's almost a memory nowShe hasn't even left but I know she's gone
She never even said where we went wrong
One thing that I know without a doubtShe's almost a memory now
Wish I could turn her heart around
I feel so alone, she's not even gone
She's almost a memory nowI feel so alone and she's not even gone
She's almost a memory now
She's almost a memory now
Wish I could turn her heart aroundShe's almost, she's almost
She's almost a memory now
