Break Away

Nocturnal Rites

Don't ever run and live a lie
Rise above it all
Spread your wings to flyDon't ever climbe, the ship of fools
Sailing on and on
Face the truthHear the cry, destiny calling you again
Point the way, allow you to fly away
Following the silent voice withinBreak away, rise anew
By leaving the memorier behind you
Break away, carry on
Only the strong will live onYour darkest hour, the final day
Looks you in the eye
Turn and walk awayBlackened soul, a heart of stone
Clown behind the mask
Let it out
