Snake Eyes

The Milk Carton Kids

swing low, swing low for to carry me home in fire the skies of redmy breath's gone cold a kiss from the coal a blanket of snow overheadslow, holy roller it's just rock and rollhold your tears where they've hung all these years down from the heavens aboveold snake eyes you had better disguise all that appears of theepray for love from the heavens above laid in the ashes below
