

Affairs of the Heart

Stephen Wrench

Yooou, were a pleasant change of pace
A real beauty, not my usual taste
What happened wasn't exactly what I had in mind
You were supposed to be my lover for only a short time,

Girl, you don't understand what was happenin' to me
Thought I was confused by life, was confused with a mystery Tried to pretend it's not just your love but I finally realized its only you that I want

And honesty can be the hardest part when it comes to Love's affairs of the the heart Tried to deny it but I must confess you have become a source of all my happiness

Never knew how lonely I was until you came around Thought I was content with life, how could I be so wrong?
Never knew that lovin' anyone could feel so good Love turned out to be everything I always thought that it should

And honesty can be the hardest part
when it comes to Love's affairs of the the heart
