Avalon

Sully Erna

A veil of sparkling white soothes and bathes me in the light
It feels me with the suns and visions of the ancient onesDescend to me, and sooth my disarray
And so it's done-Hear my words AvalonFields are swaying like dancers in the moonlight
Rivers field with dreams-Unbroken and still promisingDescend to me, and sooth my disarray
And so it's done-Hear my words AvalonWarm inside-open the way in Float into the night-Embrace what's to beAvalon
