Future Mind

Believer

[K. Bachman / J. Daub / J. Winters]Living proof of what can be Escaping from life's tragedy
Learning through another's mind
To catch a glimpse beyond the skiesMental rush of abstract pain
Never asking what's to gain
Never lost in splintered eyes
Focused on what inward liesReturn to me, I'll return to you
I will not change, to justify youLiving proof of what must be Broken from the misery
Never lost in present time
Always seeking future mindReturn to me, I'll return to you
I will not change, to justify you[Mat. 7:3; Malachi 3:6-7]
