

Fall of Thy Kingdom (Demo 2000)

Burning Point

Suspicion grows inside my head the life I have lived makes me see redIt's time to make the tables turn all the bridges will burn[Chorus]All the secrets unfold all the stories will be told it's the Fall of Thy KingdomRepeating phrases from the book your future is already doomed it's the Fall of Thy KingdomAbandoned by your faithful few breaking the spell taking our lives from youYour walls will come crumbling down you have lost the jeweled crown[Chorus]Finally kings and queens were defeated by the servants silence falls on empty halls the reign of terror has gone
