

Rip

Gary Numan

I'll get down on my knees
I'll do anything I can
I'll even walk upon water
I'll burn the soul of man I'm so sick with need
I'm so sick with pain
I lay before the cross and pray
I'll bleed like holy rain Hey, hey, hey, I've done nothing to you
Hey, hey, hey, I've done nothing to you
Hey, hey, hey, I've done nothing to you
Hey, hey, hey, I've done nothing to you I'll rip the skin from God's face
I say, 'I'm searching for the truth'
I stole the light from Heaven's gate if it
If it can guide me to you I'll give life to obsession
I'll give life to disease
I'll give you one last sin or cure
And then I'll do as I please Hey, hey, hey, I've got something for you
Hey, hey, hey, I've got something for you
I've got something for you
I've got something for you
