Rip

Gary Numan

I'll get down on my knees I'll do anything I can I'll even walk upon water I'll burn the soul of manI'm so sick with need I'm so sick with pain I lay before the cross and pray I'll bleed like holy rainHey, hey, hey, I've done nothing to you Hey, hey, hey, I've done nothing to you Hey, hey, hey, I've done nothing to you Hey, hey, hey, I've done nothing to youI'll rip the skin from God's face I say, 'I'm searching for the truth" I stole the light from Heaven's gate if it If it can guide me to youI'll give life to obsession I'll give life to disease I'll give you one last sin or cure And then I'll do as I pleaseHey, hey, hey, I've got something for you Hey, hey, I've got something for you I've got something for you I've got something for you
