Lollypop

Intro:

Was so, so blind,
Never thought I was a star all the time

Verse 1:

School days,
Nobody says,
They attracted to hairiness,
Pubic hair non-shaved,
All the way down on the E List,
No make up at all, bein' tall,
Change myself;
Still a complaint to call

Now all grown up,
Now ya wanna holla wassup,
It don't matter bout the size of my cups,
Did ya have interest all the time,
Just did wrong to this song,
Cause of what they say

I don't go with frontin',
Chicken to admit their feelings,
Cuz of some others comment

Chorus:

Don't do fake mail,
Only way to get a pay
Bein' cult buddies,
Or friends to friends,
And family with employees,
Don't do fake mail,
Sum one just playin' games,
I like it real and upfront

You've never gave me fan mail before
So I don't need your fan mail now,
No, no
I don't need your fan mail now

(don't need your fan mail now)

Verse 2:

Goin' outta town to find an opportunity,
At home, left so lost in the central of the park,
Got one chance to make my experience enhance,
Thought it'd be the ticket to another level,
give free train in' so cold

I continue to deal with associates outta town,
Don't have to put up with this ish,
Actin' a clown,
To get what I'm qualified or disqualified for,
Once my face and name on poster boards,
It'll be something funny to look back on

I don't go with frontin',
Chicken to admit their feelings,
Cuz of some others comment

Chorus:

Don't do fake mail,
Only way to get a pay
Bein' cult buddies,
Or friends to friends,
And family with employees,
Don't do fake mail,
Sum one just playin' games,

You've never gave me fan mail before
So I don't need your fan mail now,
No, no
I don't need your fan mail now
(don't need your fan mail now)

(Breakdown)

(Chorus 2x)
