

Believer

Atomic Kitten

I hear the clock, I hear the rain
I'm all alone
Why am I here and you are there
I miss you so I wish that you were here with me
I need to be the air you breathe 'Cause your blood is my blood
I feel it in my heart that we'll be together
And your God is my God
Your love has made me a believer All through the night I stay awake
And think of you
If love is deep then it will keep
I know it's true I never felt so sure before
But I don't doubt it anymore 'Cause your blood is my blood
I feel it in my heart that we'll be together
And your God is my God
Your love has made me a believer, a believer I believe in the way I feel, I believe our love is real
I believe in the dream we share, I feel it everywhere
I believe in the way we touch
I never felt so much love Your love has made me a believer
Your love has made me a believer 'Cause your blood is my blood
I feel it in my heart that we'll be together
And your God is my God
Your love has made me a believer
A believer, a believer, yeah 'Cause your blood is my blood
I feel it in my heart
And your God is my God Yes, your blood is my blood
And your God is my God
'Cause your blood is my blood
And your God is my God
