

Survivor

Cindy Bullens

Ooh, he left me
Didn't even say goodbye
Wrote me a letter
I found it by my bedside As I read it
Tears swelled up in my eyes
He said, baby, baby Don't you realize that you're a survivor
You'll work it out
And you'll carry on
You're a survivor, baby
Yeah, you're like a child
As the shades are drawn
As the shades are drawn
He wrote you can handle this life
Me, I'm not that strong
I need something else
For me to hold on Well, I thought what makes him
Think that I, I have the answer
Oh, I'm just a dancer
I'm taking all the chances
Oh, I'm just a dancer But he wrote, you're a survivor
You'll work it out
And you'll carry on
You're a survivor, baby
Yeah, you're like a child
As the shades are drawn
As the shades are drawn
Well, sure my act is tough enough
When it's only when he's beside me
(When he's beside you, girl
Taking your heart to another world) If you look good a little closer now
Well, it's a little girl inside me
(Little girl inside you) oh, oh Baby, baby, come back
Can't you understand
I can't stop getting scared sometimes
Anymore than you can You got to hang on
You got to hang on
Why can't we face it together
I'm gonna tell the ledger
That soon I'll be better

I'm gonna burn up the letter Because now you're a survivor
You'll work it out
And you'll carry on
You're a survivor, baby
Yeah, you're like a child
As the shades are drawn
As the shades are drawn We are survivors
Oh, baby, baby, baby
You're a survivor, baby, yeah...
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>