

Destiny

Stevie Nicks

Cryin' in the mornin', tryin' to be strong
Waitin' for the spring to turn into the fall
Love don't mean what it says at all
My destiny says that I'm destined to fall
My destiny is riding again
Rollin' in the rain unwinding in the wind
My destiny is fighting again
Secretly unwinding
What it was, I was supposed to say
To say to you today

Well it wasn't like the others, it was nothing at all
It wasn't like anything, it was easy to fall
Love don't mean what it says at all
My destiny says that I'm destined for it all
My destiny is riding again
Rollin' in the rain unwinding in the wind
My destiny is fighting again
Secretly unwinding
What it was that I was supposed to say
To say to you today
Crying

Still cryin' in the mornin', tryin' to be strong
Waitin' for the spring to turn into the fall
Love never meant what it said at all
My destiny proved, I was destined to fall
My destiny is riding again
Rollin' in the rain unwinding in the wind
My destiny is fighting again
Secretly unwinding
What it was that I was supposed to say
To say to you today
I am crying, I am trying
Heartbroken, unspoken
You were nothin' like the others
You were nothin' like the others
Heartbroken, unspoken
All gone nothin' left at all
Heartbroken, unspoken
I am crying, I am trying

Nothin', nothin'
